

Meet David Berson at the Fall ACUMA Conference

Sponsored by CMG MI

September 30, 2009 at 3pm

Here's what some top CU executives have to say about the value of attending the ACUMA Conference:

"Any CU professional would benefit from the networking at the Conference – the opportunity to talk to peers from very seasoned CU mortgage providers. Every time I attend ACUMA I come away with important new knowledge that I've gained from both the speakers and networking with other CU folks."

— Bob Street, President and CEO
American First Credit Union, Buena Park, CA

"We're able to plan for the future because of the great networking opportunities we have at the ACUMA Conference with Credit Unions from around the country. These are very diverse Credit Unions — sharing perspectives and information you just can't get anywhere else."

— Mark Willer, Chief Operating Officer
Royal Credit Union, Eau Claire, WI

"We got serious about mortgage lending in the late '90s and the ACUMA Conferences have been a big part of how we formed our strategies and our success over the years. Everyone should go!"

— Bob McKay, Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer
Baxter Credit Union, Vernon Hills, IL

"I understand that many CEOs are concerned about budgets this year, but they should understand that now, more than ever, their mortgage staff need to attend ACUMA in order to stay on top of their game."

— John Reed, President
Maine Savings Federal Credit Union,
Hampden, Maine

Former Chief Economist for Fannie Mae and now Chief Economist at PMI Mortgage Insurance Co., David Berson is one of the leading economic experts in the nation.

Each month, the Housing and Mortgage Market Report (HaMMR) presents his views on where the industry is heading. CMG Mortgage Insurance Company (CMG MI) is pleased to be able to share each new issue of HaMMR with our Credit Union customers via e-mail.

Now we can announce a unique opportunity for Credit Union professionals to hear David speak in person at the Fall ACUMA Conference!
